

Unto Dame Brionna of Stanway, Chief Military Advisor to The Imperial Throne
From General Theron Ferringsworth, Commander of the Borderguard, Duchy of Brightspan

Honored Dame:

At the recommendation of the Magus assigned to South Border, we are holding a small unit of soldiers, a packet of prisoners, and a small wagon of goods destined for the capital and requesting an escort under the command of an officer with your personal let.

The group hails from the Spicelands and have credentials (attached) under the seal of Randall the "purified."

Nevertheless, Magus Thronbailey has strongly urged that we hold them here, at least until we hear from you, and so we are so doing.

Respectfully yours,

Theron Ferringsworth
