

Unto the Honored Dame Brionna of Stanway, Captain of the Archducal Guard and Chief Military Advisor to the Throne
From Gavin Tarringfrock, via the Ministry of the Mind

Sighting at east border –

Honored Dame, I must report unto the throne that there has been a sighting of airships at the eastern border of the Arch-duchy. Triangulation indicates that the ships are on course – more or less – for the capital.

I have projected an image to the circle – so that it may be burned to a crystal for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted unto the Honored Dame

Gavin

((With the message is a small psi crystal – it is imperfect, but when you touch it you can sense a single image.)))
