

Ritual Index, Compiled by Level (v1.2)

Last updated: 27 Sept 2008; Compiled and maintained by Kyle S., a.k.a. "doctorhook"

Introduction:

The following is a compiled list of "rituals" which appear in official sources, and whose effects are spelled out according to the rules, intended for use in the 4th Edition Dungeons & Dragons roleplaying game. This index was created in the spirit of the table, "Rituals By Level" appearing on page 301 of the 4E Player's Handbook, but with several additional features; first, obviously, this list indexes rituals appearing in sources other than that book; second, I have noted the exact location, including page number, of each ritual listed here; third, I have colour-coded the key skill(s) for each ritual, for ease of searching; fourth, each entry indicates whether or not the use of that ritual actually requires a skill check (for the convenience of those characters with below-average skill modifiers); fifth and finally, I have listed each ritual's "category", as described on page 299 of the Player's Handbook.

It is the author's intent to keep this list as up-to-date and accurate as possible. Please direct corrections, omissions, and comments to the following thread at ENWorld.org: <http://www.enworld.org/forum/showthread.php?t=238591>

For additional information regarding rituals, please see "Chapter 10: Rituals" on page 296 of the Player's Handbook.

Legend:

Level: the "level" of the ritual; Ritual: the name of the ritual; Category: the "category" of the ritual (See page 299 of the Player's Handbook for details.); Key Skill: the name of skill used for casting the ritual; Check? Indicates whether or not casting the ritual requires the caster to make a check with the Key Skill. Source: the location of the rules text for the ritual, written in the following format: [source name or abbreviation] p###, where "p###" is the page number within the source. For example, if the source is "PH p300", then the rules text for the ritual can be found on page 300 of the Player's Handbook. Source names and abbreviations are listed below.
