

ll praise be to Lord Ará'kull.

His glory is ours, just as his triumph over the false gods, the demons and devils, was our triumph.

By his hand, the Black Lord fell and his armies broke upon the battlements of our faith. For this alone, we owe a debt eternal.

Our souls, our lives are owed to Lord Ará'kull for the peace, freedom, and salvation we are blessed with each and every day.

Praise be to the high Lord, Ará'kull.

Amen.
