

To the Mouth

From Sir Darryl Strawberry - for my father

We have moved in on a half dozen groups, none of them of our citizens, performing unusual preparations around the edges of the western territories. We need direction.

For my father