

Cut off both 'armlets.' Will explain black spots as tattoos; tiger and dragon, of course.

Sliced off pole arm. Used gravel to cover spot on side of boot.

Sealed with spray polyurethane.

Aquarium gravel, sifted for size. Blue to match blue theme..

"T'surr," $I Star Wars miniature

Put drop of white paint on eyes with toothpick. Did pupil with fine-point Sharpie.

Painted horns (?) black so they look more like hair.

Made Chinese nine-ring sword out of credit card. Rings made out of pop can with hole punch. Slit sword with razor and inserted rings with tweezers, held with crazy glue.

Primered white, colored with silver Sharpie.

First cut slit in guard (hushou), then cut it to shape to ensure alignment with blade.

Slit fist with razor, dry fit sword hilt, then trimmed so it wouldn't stick out past fist. Glued back in with crazy glue.

To increase size from Medium to Large, mounted on two bases cut from 3/16" wood, 1 1/2" and 2" diameter..

Edges distressed with rasp. Painted black, ink wash and brown spray paint dry brush.
